

INVITE YOU

to the opening of the exhibition

Testing the Boundaries and Paving the Way to Democratization

LITMAG

East European Literary Magazines 1945–2004

Thursday, 29 September 2022 at 6 PM,
National Museum of Contemporary History

The exhibition will take place from 29 September to 6 November 2022

This exhibition is part of the international project LITMAG, which brings together eight organizations from different European countries. The project focuses on Eastern European literary magazines, which have opposed authoritarian and totalitarian regimes and have significantly affected the processes of democratization and joining the European Union after the Second World War.

Apart from the exhibition, which will take place in Slovenia, Poland, Austria, Hungary, Lithuania and Italy, this topic will be discussed in further detail in online lectures and a scholarly publication that will be issued in March 2024, at the end of the project.

Project partner and exhibition host:

National Museum of Contemporary History
Celovška cesta 23, Ljubljana, Slovenia
E: uprava@muzej-nz.si

Project coordinator:

Beletrina Academic Press
Neubergerjeva 30, 1000 Ljubljana, Slovenia
E: info@beletrina.si

LITMAG

Funded by the European Union

Project partners:

Beletrina Academic Press, Slovenia
National Museum of Contemporary History, Slovenia
University of Salzburg, Austria
University of Bielsko-Biala, Poland
University of Pécs, Hungary
The Directorates of Vilnius Memorial Museums—Venclovas' House-Museum, Lithuania
University of Trieste, Italy
Science and Research Centre Koper, Slovenia

www.litmag.eu